EPK

Description

Miss Havisham's Digital Clock live at Crouch End Festival

PRESS RELEASE

Hole In My Bucket List -Released 6th November-

Danceable Indie Disco with a tongue-in-cheek look at enjoying life while you can. It has the feel of Scissor Sisters meets Roxy Music with Leonard Cohen-like lyrics.

Love is the answer as the world's top Love songs are referenced in the infectious chorus.

Showcasing this in upcoming sets at The Dublin Castle and The Westbury N22 with more to come in November/December.

Bio

MISS HAVISHAM'S DIGITAL CLOCK

Disco/House/ Alternative Rock / Chamber Pop / New Psychedelia / Post-Punk

North London's Miss Havisham's Digital Clock blend art-school eccentricity with indie swagger and a touch of steampunk theatre. Velvet jackets, ruffled shirts and irresistible hooks meet storytelling lyrics and unexpected instrumentsâ yes, someone really does play the saw.

With four songwriters on board, their sound shifts from Disco/House (Hole In My Bucket List) to Gothic pop fairytales(Charming Prince) to psychedelic dreamscapes (Trifle Filled Skies) and punchy post-punk anthems (Dark Star).

Sounds like Scissor Sisters, XTC, The Cure, Sparks, Beck, The Kinks.

After seven singles and a string of crowd-pulling gigsâ from the Crouch End Festival (complete with Pink Floyd's original light show) to Camden's Bucks Headâ the band are gearing up for gigs at the Dublin Castle, The Westbury and more!

L-R Back row: Gavin ,Rob,Jeremy , Front row: John,Grant, Adam

SONGS

PAST GIGS

The Crouch End Festival, The Hillbilly Social, Dublin Castle, Bucks Head, Jam In A Jar, Muswell Hillbilly Brewery, Palmers Green Festival, Goodness Brewing Company, The Ranelagh

UPCOMING GIGS

19/11/26 The Dublin Castle

27/11/26 The Westbury

Email us

- Facebook
- Instagram

Want a pdf of this page?

Click on the pdf icon: